The Pancake Breakfast was a grand opening for Catholic Schools Week. Special thanks to our Kitchen Crew under the command of John Rovere, Mike Flynn and Billy Schappert. The food was delicious and quite plentiful.

Thanks also to Donna Horn, Linda Coluccio, Mindy Enochs, Meg Rovere, Tammy Schappert, and Amy Downes.

Kudos are also extended to our students who addressed the parishioners at Mass, distributed the Thank You cards after Mass, and for those who stepped up and assisted at the Pancake Breakfast.

Volunteers are a special breed and each event at RCS brings to the fore the best of the group!

Thanks so Much!

Principal's Corner

Dear Parents,

Within the next day or two you will be receiving the information packet for registration for the 2010-2011 School Year. Please respond back by mid February so that the numbers we submit for our Budget are as accurate as possible. In these days of stressed economics, it is imperative to have all our numbers in a row so that our financial plan is reflective of our best efforts that highlight the best of RCS.

Our Open House yesterday was very busy. Thanks to your word of mouth contacts, several families braved the torrential rains to come and visit RCS. They were impressed and are seriously considering us for September. As we all know, enrollments are gained one student-one family at a time and I thank you for making that special effort to introduce us to those families who might find RCS as the right fit!

Sincerely,

Eileen A. Kerins
